“Humor Therapy”

Attend this interactive presentation to learn how to have humor in your life during the challenging times we are living in today.

Marty Downey, MS, PhD, RN, CCRN, AHN-BC is an Associate Professor in the Department of Nursing at Boise State University. Marty completed her master’s of science degree in nursing through Idaho State University and obtained her doctoral education through University of Idaho’s program in Adult and Organizational Learning.

Over the years, Marty says that she has learned that you create calm in your life through recognition of your body-mind-spirit needs and continued commitment to balance on a daily basis. Humor is part of creating resilience and calm in everyday life so this presentation will include the use of Humor as a tool for healthy lifestyles. An interactive presentation that will give you the giggles and get you motivated to laugh at yourself!
